WE WILL HAVE PLEASURE IN WELCOMING

SIR NIGEL SHEINWALD GCMG

'From Gayton Road to Pennsylvania Avenue: reflections on a diplomatic career and Britain's future place in the world'.

'Sir Nigel Sheinwald is a former British diplomat. He served as British Ambassador to the United States (2007-12, spanning the Presidencies of George W Bush and Barack Obama), as Foreign Policy and Defence Adviser to Prime Minister Tony Blair (2003-7) and as British Ambassador to the European Union in Brussels (2000-03), and in a range of other posts in a 36 year career. Since leaving the Diplomatic Service in 2012, he has served as a Non Executive Director and senior adviser at Royal Dutch Shell and other international companies. He is a Visiting Professor at King's College London and supports a number of organisations in the fields of international affairs and education. Nigel grew up in the Harrow area, and was educated at Harrow County School (now Harrow High) and Balliol College, Oxford. He is married with three adult sons and lives in London.'
