

UDST ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

Leader's Lens

Dear UDS Alumni,

Ramadan Kareem! The blessed month is a time for coming together, reflecting and expanding our knowledge, which is why there is no better time to launch our UDS Alumni Newsletter. Your continued support and engagement serve as a testament to the strong bond we share, surpassing time and distance. Whether you graduated recently or decades ago, your contributions to the community and society and the legacy you uphold are a source of inspiration to the current and future generations of students. As Ramadan is a time for reflection, gratitude and renewal of faith it is our responsibility to highlight the importance of knowledge and education in our lives. Narrated by Abu Musa (may Allah be pleased with him), the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said: "Seeking knowledge is obligatory upon every Muslim." We take immense pride in our alumni who have accomplished a great deal and continue to excel, carrying the UDS banner high wherever they go. I encourage every one of you to connect with us, to share your insights and innovative ideas. This University will always welcome you with open arms, and is eager to provide you with the space necessary for engaging interaction."

Alumni Spotlight

Get to know our amazing Alumni firsthand:

Aisha Al-Baker

Aisha Al-Baker, Class of '08, has carved a remarkable path in the field of human resources. She is currently serving as the Head of Human Resources and Administration at Qatar Career Development Center.

Considering your experiences since graduating from UDS, what advice would you now give to the person you were when you first stepped onto campus?

Reflecting on my journey since graduating from UDS, I would advise my younger self to embrace every opportunity for growth, stay resilient in the face of challenges, and prioritize building meaningful connections.

How has your success allowed you to give back or support others?

My success as Head of HR and Administration in Qatar Career Development Centre has empowered me to support others by providing mentorship, guidance, and opportunities for professional growth. Through my experience, I aim to inspire and assist others in achieving their career aspirations and reaching their full potential.

Haleema Raja

Haleema Raja, an example of loyalty and dedication to the University of Doha for Science and Technology (UDST). As the Alumni Engagement Specialist and master's graduate, class of '23, Haleema embodies the spirit of a true UDS alumnus and employee.

How do you prioritize ongoing learning and professional development in your career?

The environment and teaching approach of the professors at UDS embedded the motivation in me to never stop learning. After getting my bachelor's degree, I opted to pursue a Master of Science in Human Resource Management at UDS.

How has your success allowed you to give back or support others?

It has always been my aspiration to come back and work at UDS to give back. I have now gotten the opportunity to assist fellow alumni and students in utilizing the resources provided by the University to excel. This is my way of giving back to the institution that played a pivotal role in shaping my identity and accomplishments.

Farah Sabri

Farah Sabri, Class of '19, a remarkable individual who not only holds a Chemical Engineering diploma from UDS but has also ventured into the world of literature as a successful novelist.

How has your education at UDS influenced your career and personal growth?

UDST provided an encouraging environment for my preparation in the professional life. I learned the significance of formality and cultivated many beneficial work habits during my time there. The education and experiences at UDS have significantly contributed to my readiness for the workforce, for which I am grateful.

What achievement and milestones are you most proud of in your career?

I have always been proud specifically after choosing UDS. I learned that one should be proud in all phases and stages of life, hence, when I became a student at UDS I was proud. When I started to work, I was proud and I am proud as a novelist as well.
