

DAVID ALLEN WEBER

David Allan Weber was born Oct. 9, 1939, in Chicago. He passed away on March 26, 2025, at his home in Williams Bay.

David graduated from Fenger High School in Chicago in 1957. He served in the Air Force before working at Barber Green. He then moved up to Williams Bay, where he worked for his father at the business he started in Genoa City – Mode Industries Inc. He later took over the business and moved Mode Industries to Delavan, where it continues today. Mode Industries, Inc., has been in business for over 50 years.

David was a strong leader in his community and advocated for a lot of important causes. He was on the Williams Bay Village board for nine years and was the Williams Bay School Board president for 18 years. He was also the Walworth County 7th District Supervisor for 18 years. He served as a Director on Vocational Industries Board for 12 years, a Director on Work Force Development Board for 10 years, a Director of The Delavan Development Board for six years, and a Director on The M&I Bank South for 14 years. He accomplished so much in his community during his time and dedicated his life to help make a change. He spearheaded the building of the new Williams Bay High School on Highway 67 and the new Lakeland School of Special Education.

David was a special person to many, especially his family. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandpa, and Opa (great-grandpa). He supported his family through each and every endeavor they endured and always showed up. He was proud of every accomplishment big or small – as well as ensuring we were all happy making every moment light hearted with his many, many jokes and funny faces.

David is survived by his wife Ellen Weber; six children, Kurt (Julie) Schadewald, Spencer (Michelle) Weber, Sara (Dave) Stacey (John) Higgins, David Weber and Derek Weber; 10 grandchildren, Paul and Sterling Schadewald, Gavin and Logan Weber, Ciara (Jake) Stilling and Becca (Colton) Hale, and John-Spencer, Lauren, Bridget and Margaret Higgins; and three great-grandchildren, Hemi Black, and Lincoln and Hudson Stilling. He is also survived by his sister Sandra Angstrom. He was preceded in death by his parents Elsa and Wesley Weber, brother Ronald Weber, sister Kathy Weber, his first wife Marilyn Weber and son Chris Schadewald.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, April 5, 2025, from 10 a.m. until time of service at 1 p.m. at Toynton Walworth Funeral Home, 328 Kenosha St., Walworth. Burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery.

The family asks memorials be sent to Lakeland School, Walworth County Adult Special Olympics or VIP Services.
