

PRESS RELEASE – Oct 22, 2025

Bradford National Bank Welcomes Ben Eberwein as New Loan Officer Bringing Nearly 20 Years of Lending Experience to Bradford National Bank

Bradford National Bank is pleased to announce the addition of Ben Eberwein to its lending team. The announcement was made by John Keeven, Senior Vice President for the bank.

With nearly two decades of lending experience, Eberwein brings a wealth of knowledge in commercial, residential, and consumer loans. His expertise and dedication to helping clients find the right financial solutions make him an outstanding asset to the bank and the community.

“We are thrilled to welcome Ben Eberwein to Bradford National Bank,” said Keeven. “Ben’s extensive background and client-first mentality align perfectly with our mission to provide top-tier service and support to our customers. We look forward to the positive impact he will have on our clients and our team.”

Ben expressed his excitement about joining Bradford National Bank, emphasizing, “I’m proud to be part of a true community bank that is dedicated to serving our neighbors. My aim is to help clients reach their financial goals by offering personalized lending solutions and exceptional service.”

Outside of his professional role, Ben enjoys spending quality time with his family and actively participates in various community initiatives. His commitment to both his work and his local community further underscores his value as a member of the Bradford National Bank team.

About Bradford National Bank

Bradford National Bank, established in 1867, is a cornerstone of financial stability and community support in Illinois. As the 10th oldest bank in the state, it offers a wide range of services, including personal and commercial banking, mortgage lending, and financial planning. With a focus on customer satisfaction and community involvement, Bradford National Bank remains dedicated to helping its clients achieve their financial goals. Learn more at www.bradfordbank.com.