

Bradford National Bank Announces Staff Promotions

At its December meeting, the Bradford National Bank Board of Directors announced three staff promotions, according to bank President, Michael Ennen.

- John Keeven has been promoted to Senior Vice President and Senior Lending Officer and will manage the loan program for the bank. Keeven is a 2004 graduate of McKendree University with a BS in finance. He has over 20 years of banking experience.
- Cara Snow has been elevated to Assistant Vice President and manages the bank's loan accounting and payroll program.
- Amy Tebbe has been promoted to Assistant Vice President and works in the bank's consumer lending program.

Ennen said, "These employees have shown tremendous growth at the bank as well as exceptional dedication to serving our customers and to helping our bank run more effectively and efficiently." He added, "As the bank continues to grow, their knowledge and enthusiasm will continue to be a tremendous asset to the bank."

2024 has been a very busy year for Bradford National Bank with the addition of several new products and services and construction of the new Breese facility. The bank also continues to invest in all of the communities we serve and has surpassed $600 million in total assets for the first time in its 157-year history.

Founded in 1867, Bradford National Bank is the 10th oldest bank in Illinois. For additional information, visit www.BradfordBank.com.
