

The Pan Celtic International Festival is an annual celebration of Celtic music, language, and culture, bringing together communities from Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Brittany, Cornwall, and the Isle of Man. The festival features traditional and contemporary music, song, dance, storytelling, and cultural workshops. It promotes shared Celtic heritage while also highlighting the unique traditions of each participating nation, creating a vibrant atmosphere of connection and celebration.