

Rapid Response Legal Support for the CUNY Community

The University launched the CUNY Immigration Assistance Project \(CIAP\), a rapid response legal resource for members of the CUNY community needing emergency help around recent immigration policy changes. CUNY students and employees can request a consultation with an immigration attorney through the QR code below or at cuny.edu/ciap.

Consultations available for the following services:

- Detained student, faculty or staff
- Travelling internationally or domestically
- F1 reinstatement and visas
- Loss or change of status
- Preparing for immigration court hearings and USCIS interviews
