DIGITAL PERFORMANCE LAB

D'Arcy Smith, Professor and Director of the Digital Performance Lab

The Digital Performance Lab serves as a hub for the creation, production, research and training in digital performance. The mission is to bridge the gap between industry and academia, creating new work and investigating ways for performers to improve their skills and access the digital performance industry. Over the past 9 months the lab has produced VR performances of Opera and Shakespeare, Vertical Micro-Series, Cartoons and Horror Shorts. Come see the future of digital performance!

KEYBOARD

Andy Villemez, Division Head of Keyboard Studies

Michael Chertock, Chair of Piano Department
