SPEAKER: MICHAL COTLER-WUNSH, LL.B, LL.M

Michal Cotler-Wunsh, LL.B., LL.M. is CEO of the International Legal Forum (ILF) and a leading voice on international law, human rights, antisemitism, and Zionism. She served as Israel's Special Envoy for Combatting Antisemitism from 2023-2025, where she warned of the growing and increasingly normalized threat of antisemitism across international institutions, academia, online platforms, and public life.

Previously, Michal was a Member of Israel's 23rd Knesset, serving on and chairing several key committees. She was the first Knesset liaison on issues related to the International Criminal Court and co-founded the Inter-Parliamentary Task Force to Combat Online Antisemitism.

Michal serves on multiple boards, including as a trustee of The Rabbi Sacks Legacy, and lives in Ra'anana, Israel, with her husband and four children.
