

UDST ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

President's lens

Dear Alumni,

As we turn the page on another academic year, we proudly celebrate the graduation of the class of 2025. It is a moment of deep pride to witness the newest members of our UDST alumni community take their first steps beyond campus, ready to lead, innovate, and inspire.

Graduation is not only the culmination of years of hard work, but also the beginning of a new journey, one rooted in the values and spirit of UDST. To our newest alumni: welcome to a lifelong network of leaders, creators, and changemakers.

We now find ourselves at the beginning of the summer break, a time that naturally invites pause and reflection. Whether you are considering your next career move, planning further studies, or simply taking time to recharge, I encourage you to use this season to reflect on your goals, refocus your energy, and invest in your personal growth.

This is a time not just for rest, but for reimagining what's possible. At UDST, we remain committed to supporting your journey through knowledge, meaningful connections, and new opportunity.

Wishing you a meaningful and restful summer.

Dr. Salem Al-Naemi
President,
University of Doha for Science and Technology

Campus Chronicles,
Where News Unfolds

The Class of 2025 officially joined our expanding UDST alumni community during the recent graduation ceremony. With over 1166 graduates, this milestone highlights the continued excellence and diversity of our alumni network. Congratulations to all our newest graduates!

As part of this year's graduation celebrations, Lily Valley and Anana Café were proudly selected as official vendors across all three days. Both alumni-owned, these businesses showcased the creativity, passion, and entrepreneurial spirit of UDST graduates.

Alumni Spotlight

Get to know our amazing Alumni firsthand:

Mohamed Feras Mander (2025)

Who inspired you the most during your academic journey?
My mother has been my greatest inspiration. Her unwavering support and belief in my potential gave me the strength to overcome every challenge.

Now that you have graduated, what are your plans?
I plan to begin my career in the engineering field while also pursuing higher studies to further specialize and advance in my profession.

What achievement at UDST are you most proud of?
I'm most proud of graduating and making my family and loved ones proud. Seeing their happiness and feeling their support come full circle means everything to me.

Nagham Abdulkader Abutalib (2025)

Who inspired you the most during your academic journey?
My biggest inspiration has been my family and close friends, whose constant encouragement and support helped me overcome every challenge. I'm also grateful to my academic advisor for their invaluable guidance.

Now that you have graduated, what are your plans?
I plan to apply my knowledge in the field while continuously building my professional skills. I also look forward to pursuing higher studies in the future to further advance my career.

What achievement at UDST are you most proud of?
I'm proud of stepping out of my comfort zone to participate in safety-related initiatives, which helped me grow professionally and build confidence in real-world settings.

Anna Jassim Mohammed (2025)

Who inspired you the most during your academic journey?
Mr. Ashfaq Ahmad, my advisor, had the greatest impact on me. He supported me unconditionally and stood by my side whenever I needed guidance. To me, he was not just an instructor but also like a father and a true friend.

Now that you have graduated, what are your plans?
I plan to continue expanding my knowledge by pursuing a master's degree. I also hope to start my professional journey with a job opportunity at UDST, a place that has shaped much of who I am today.

What achievement at UDST are you most proud of?
I'm proud to have earned three Honor Standing distinctions, along with an Achievement Award, accomplishments that reflect my dedication and hard work throughout my academic journey. Another major milestone was also obtaining my CIPD membership, which I achieved through studying Human Resource Management at UDST.
