Chapter 136: Brad "Arthurian" Legend

Since the age of ten, AMT Headingley Stadium has been my cultural home, a stage of inspiration and steep education. The melting pot where experiences unfold, stories are told, and we are woven into the fabric of Leeds.

I have seen many transformations at the club, but perhaps none as momentous as the way the Rhinos pivoted under the leadership of Brad Arthur in 2025. His influence was felt by everyone, not only in what we saw on the field, but in what we heard and felt from the eclectic groups of fans who call AMT Headingley their home.

It feels, to me at least, as though we are entering a Brad "Arthurian" legend: a time of hope, where story meets reality, and where our formidable youth academy feeds a new generation of players ready to write their own history.

Listening to stories from Gary Hetherington, in the multitude of theatrical spaces he created, it struck me that the true power of Rhinos culture is in how we gather together. He reminds us that by telling and retelling the past, we find strength in the present and direction for the future.

Like the tactile touch of this brochure, the joy of being a Rhinos fan is in the tangible, connected experience inside the coliseum that is AMT Headingley: the roar of the South Stand, the thrill of match day, the sense of belonging that binds us all.

In 2026 we continue to build across all our teams – professional, community, and inclusion. Each represents a pathway of opportunity: a place where people of all ages and abilities can thrive, inspire the narrative, and galvanise relationships.

Gary Hetherington's vision and legacy - "One Team, Team Rhinos" - remains at the heart of who we are: a united team our city can be proud of. One that connects, cross-pollinates, and collaborates to enrich our lives and those who choose to walk with us.

Our heritage binds us. Our future excites us. And our stories will carry us forward.

Thank you for your loyalty, your passion, and your belief. ALAW 🍷🍷🍷

Brad Arthur

Leeds Rhinos Head Coach

Firstly on behalf of my family and I, I would like to thank all our Rhinos supporters, and especially our members, for how you have made us all feel so welcome over the last eighteen months.

I've enjoyed my time here so much and your support was a big factor in my decision to stay at AMT Headingley.

Working alongside Ian Blease, my vision was to make sure that the club is set up and in a position where we know what our identity is. When you pull on that Rhinos' jersey, whether you're in our Scholarship, Academy or Reserves right through to the top squad, you know what the club wants to look like. You know the standards that are set for you and your challenge is to meet those standards.

I always wanted to make sure that I could make a difference and I feel like I can. I love winning but what I really enjoy the most is sustained success. I like seeing guys being mentioned for the England squad and the fact that all three grades have performed well this season, that shows we are improving at all levels. But the biggest thing that I enjoy is the look in the boys' eyes when they come off the field and I give them a hug or a handshake and we have that connection knowing they've had a real crack for the club and the team.

I've learned a lot about leadership and it is not always just about telling people what to do. It's giving other guys control of those opportunities and that's how you build bigger, stronger leadership.

AMT Headingley is a huge boost to us as a team, playing at home is an opportunity for us but we all have to take that opportunity. The boys have their job to get you excited with their play, both in attack and defence, and you too have a vital role in taking that excitement and lifting the atmosphere so our opponents know they are in for a tough night and our boys know they have your support.

By becoming a member, we know you are with us every step of the way in 2026.

Thank you for your support and I can't wait to see you again next season.

Which stand will YOU call home?

AMT Headingley Stadium can accommodate over 19,500 fans across four areas. These are the North Stand, AMT East Stand, Tetley's South Stand and the Western Terrace. Each stand has its own unique identity and atmosphere as well as access to different amenities. Which stand will you call home?

North Stand

Situated above the tunnel and on the same side as the team benches, the North Stand can accommodate nearly 3,700 fans. It provides a more relaxed game day experience whilst fans can still enjoy the famous AMT Headingley Stadium atmosphere.

With great views of the pitch as well as unrestricted views of the big screen and scoreboard, the North Stand has a concourse with two bars offering snack and drink options and multiple TV screens. Additional food options are also easily accessible from either the Courtyard or the Amber Avenue (route from Kirkstall Lane gates).

"OUR SEATS HAVE A LOVELY VIEW OF THE WHOLE PITCH, WE'RE ALSO CLOSER TO THE AWAY FANS IN OUR SECTION AND THAT REALLY ADDS TO THE ATMOSPHERE AROUND US. WE LOVE HOW EASY IT IS TO ACCESS THE BARS ON THE NORTH STAND CONCOURSE TOO" - MATTHEW & BECKY

AMT East Stand

Located behind the sticks and close to the tryline, the AMT East Stand can house over 4,000 fans which are split across seated and standing areas.

Often populated on a game day with those attending as part of community groups, the stand has a fun, youthful and energetic atmosphere.

The stand gives great access to the main Club Shop, the Café Bar as well as the Courtyard where fans can get a drink or pick up some food from a wide range of options. The Courtyard area is usually a hive of activity, where magicians, face painters, balloon modellers and Ronnie the Rhino are easily found.

"WE LIKE THE FLEXIBILITY THE TERRACE GIVES YOU, YOU'RE NOT FIXED TO ONE DEDICATED SPOT IN THE STAND. THE VIEW FROM BEHIND THE STICKS IS GREAT! WE FEEL LIKE WE'RE CLOSER TO THE ACTION HERE AND HAVE SEEN MANY GREAT TRIES BEING SCORED" - KEITH & JIMMY

Tetley's South Stand

If you want to be at the heart of the action and the atmosphere then the Tetley's South Stand is for you. The South Stand is home to nearly 8,000 fans, spread across standing and seating and offers fantastic views of the pitch from all areas.

Famous for the cauldron of noise generated by the South Standers who call this area home, the fans play a huge part in generating the game day atmosphere at AMT Headingley.

The concourse is often the main area for the wider family focussed entertainment which changes on a game-by-game basis and can range from Armed Forces activations to Star Wars characters; however, Ronnie the Rhino, face painters and balloon modellers are always in attendance.

The seated section in the South Stand enables fans to be part of the atmosphere, but don't want to be on their feet for the duration of the game day.

"THE VIEW FROM THE SOUTH STAND IS GREAT! YOU'VE GOT TO BE IN HERE FOR THE ATMOSPHERE AND THE INVOLVEMENT - THE NOISE, THE SINGING, IT'S GREAT" - CAROL, KIRSTY & PAUL

Western Terrace

The Western Terrace offers an old school Rugby League experience that puts you right in the thick of the action and competition.

The stand is the traditional home to the away supporters, however you will still find Rhinos fans in there who mention the atmosphere and friendly banter between opposing fans amongst their reasons for choosing this area.

The stand can accommodate 3,500 fans and is open to the elements which can make for glorious summer evenings and a potentially chillier spring. Food and drink can be purchased on the North Stand concourse and the Amber Avenue (route from Kirkstall Lane gates) which also serves as the primary access point to the stand.

The Terrace is all standing and positioned behind the sticks with a great view of the pitch.

"I LIKE BEING WITH THE AWAY FANS. TO ME IT MAKES THE GAME BETTER, I ENJOY THE BANTER - THEY GIVE IT TO ME, I GIVE IT BACK AND THAT'S JUST THE WAY IT IS!" - PAUL
