WHAT IS RHINOS ACCESS

Leeds Rhinos is the first Rugby League Club to have a dedicated accessibility scheme to assist fans who may have additional accessibility requirements.

RHINOS ACCESS is the new accessibility scheme for Leeds Rhinos and AMT Headingley which will bring together all accessibility the club offers under one banner.

WHAT IS THE AIM OF RHINOS ACCESS

The aim of RHINOS ACCESS is simply 'Making AMT Headingley a stadium accessible for all'.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

Leeds Rhinos wants to make sure that Accessibility is at the forefront of the Club, and the club wants to create an atmosphere that is welcoming to all.

We understand that's each fans accessibility requirements are personal to each individual fan and they might not feel comfortable discussing these in an open setting.

RHINOS ACCESS is important as it gives fans the tools to communicate with Stewards and Club Staff in a discreet and dignified manner.

IS RHINOS ACCESS MANDATORY?

No, RHINOS ACCESS is all voluntary and it is there if any fan wishes to use the services that Leeds Rhinos offers which are outlined in this RHINOS ACCESS VISITORS GUIDE to support fans with their attendance at AMT Headingley Stadium.
