

Grow with our AARN ERG

At the YMCA of Central New York, the African American Resource Network (AARN) is all about building community and providing opportunities for individual and professional growth.

Why Join?

- Network with colleagues across different departments and build a supportive professional community.
- Educate & Empower by sharing resources, insights, and personal stories.
- Support & Engage with others that share similar experiences and challenges, providing a safe space for all.
- Personal Growth gaining insights and inspiration from others, fostering growth and confidence.
