

A job at Sasol is a career made by you, with purpose, development opportunities, benefits to support every stage of life and a working culture that embraces flexibility, diversity and inclusion.

Purpose

Innovating for a Better World—From our technologies, to our products, to how we run our facilities, serve our customers and communities, we strive to be a force for social good and deliver on our triple bottom line outcomes of People, Planet and Profit

Career development

Growth and development opportunities, defined career paths, leadership development, mentorship, education reimbursement

Performance rewards

Performance-related pay available based on your role and company business performance

Competitive pay and top quartile benefits packages

401k, pension offerings

Work-life balance

Flexible working arrangements, including hybrid and remote work as well as paid time off and leave of absence

Health and wellness

Preventative care, wellness programs and comprehensive packages

Long-term security

Life insurance, disability leave, retiree medical insurance and dependent care programs

Diverse, global network

Presence in 17 countries, 4,500 employees from 51 nationalities, 6,500 customers in 118 countries, seven research and development facilities in five countries, more than $10.5 billion in annual revenue