

Sara Elizabeth Dill

Personal Bio

Sara Elizabeth Dill is a partner at Anethum Global for the Middle East and Gulf regions where her areas of focus include international law, human rights, foreign affairs, sanctions, war crimes, cross-border finance, and national security. In 2019, Sara was appointed as the Arab Region liaison officer for war crimes and human rights of the International Bar Association.

In 2016, she gave a TEDx Talk in Monte Carlo, Monaco, titled “Women Are Not Weapons of War.” Two of the many boards that Sara serves on include the Blue Tulip Human Rights Group, assisting survivors of human rights abuse in Turkey, and O-Bazaar, a non-profit organization to educate, empower, and assist the women of Afghanistan.

Sara has an LLM in international human rights with highest honors from Northwestern Law School. Sara attended Marquette University, where she majored in political science, with an emphasis in economics, criminology, and international affairs. She received her Juris Doctorate from Marquette Law School.