

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

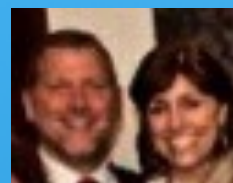

KENTON TAKES GREAT PLEASURE IN WELCOMING BACK

RABBI SHMUEL MILLER

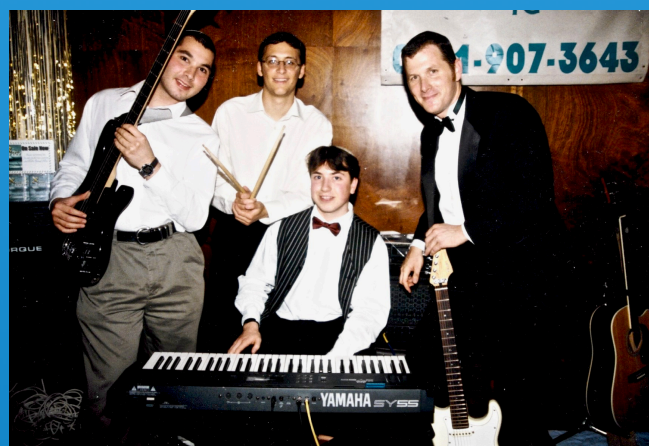

THURSDAY 24TH JUNE 8.15 pm

Decades, Destinations and Defining Moments

Rabbi Shmuel Miller has educated and inspired individuals, families and communities on four continents. He served as the New England NCSY Regional Director, Founder of Jewish Experience for Teens in the UK, Rabbi of Ohr Samayach Institution in Cape Town, Director of Chai Lifeline and Chief Operating Officer and Director of Advancement for two Jewish schools.

Rabbi Miller became Kenton's Director of Youth Activities when he arrived here from Israel with his wife, D'vorah and their three children in 1995. He was very popular with Kenton's youth and held a 'surgery' to give counselling and advice when required, or just to chat. He encouraged and promoted enthusiasm for Jewish learning, was actively involved with the Youth Club and arranged an Israel tour for the Managers. He also formed the Aleph Beat Band, an added attraction for the youth.
