8 pm A talk by Dr STEVEN WILSON
'REFLECTING ON THE PAST YEAR'

Dr Wilson is the Chief Executive of the United Synagogue. He has led the organisation's Covid task force responding to the pandemic.

Steven was brought up in Wembley and has lived in orthodox communities, large and small, across London, the UK and internationally. He is also a former governor at the Mathilda Marks-Kennedy Jewish Primary School.

For many years Steven has led and held director-level roles at major national and international research organisations .

Since joining the United Synagogue in October 2014 Steven has been the driving force behind the implementation of the Strategic Review with a particular focus on supporting community growth, the development of rabbinic careers and engaging young people in the US. He has visited many communities for both Shabbat and events, always happy to visit and answer any questions about the United Synagogue that members may raise.
