

is delighted to welcome

DANIEL GREENBERG CB

Kenton's Shabbaton in High Wycombe in 2019 was enhanced by Daniel's talks and we look forward to hearing his Zoom talk -

30 YEARS IN THE CORRIDORS OF POWER

A PERSPECTIVE ON THE PRESSURES OF PARLIAMENT

on THURSDAY MARCH 18, 8 pm

Daniel Greenberg is a barrister specialising in legislation and the legislative process. He was appointed Counsel for Domestic Legislation in the House of Commons in 2016, and Companion of the Order of the Bath (CB) in the New Year Honours List 2021. He publishes on legislation, drafts primary and subordinate legislation in the UK and elsewhere, and provides drafting and training services around the world. He holds a number of academic appointments in law. In addition to his legal work, Daniel writes and teaches about Jewish law and thought in a number of forums.
