

dorot

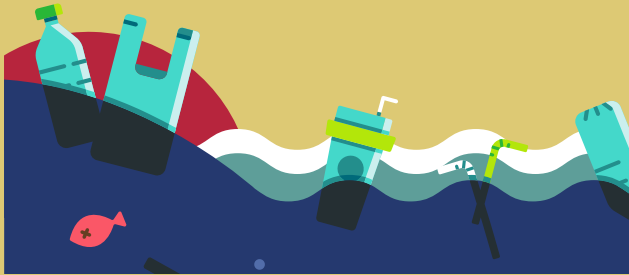

thriving for generations

An update in numbers for EcoShabbat
November 2022

48%

of US shuls have either gone disposables-free or significantly reduced their plastic usage

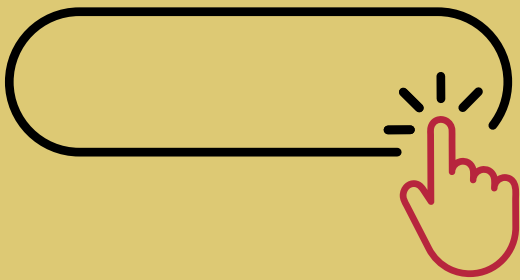

1,200+

Trees have been planted by our members in the first ever United Synagogue grove

1,800+

unique visits to the Dorot webpages for environmental resources and information for US shuls and members

AA

ESG equivalent rating confirmed on our investments portfolio

5+

acres of future burial land will be planted with wildflower seeds in Spring 2023

100%

Disposable-free at the United Synagogue head office

