

The House of Life Visitor Centre at the US's Willesden Cemetery
Urgently Needs Front of House (FoH) Volunteers

This role is perfect for individuals who enjoy talking to new people and have a passion for sharing the heritage of the site.

FoH volunteers offer a friendly welcome to people from all walks of life, enhancing the visitor experience by ensuring a safe and enjoyable time is had by all.

FoH volunteers answer questions about the site and Jewish burial traditions and help visitors navigate the Cemetery.

FoH volunteers share their enthusiasm for the Cemetery, its history and importance.

FoH volunteers also play an essential role by helping the smooth and safe running of the Visitor Centre, and to operate interactive features on display.

After an initial training period, FoH volunteers have the opportunity to open up and close the Visitor Centre.

Shifts are:

Monday to Thursday 9.30am-1.30pm and

Sunday 9:30am-1.30pm and/or 1.15pm to 4.15pm
