

MONDAY BOOK TALKS

We have been looking at some of the books which some of us feel should be considered for a place on every Jewish bookshelf. This is the fourth meeting.

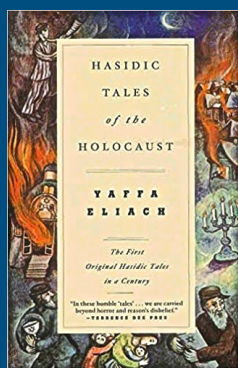

The People and the Books

MONDAY 21st JUNE, 8.15 pm

IRENE LEEMAN will be looking at
"OUT OF THE DEPTHS", the autobiography of the inspiring
RABBI ISRAEL MEIR LAU who lost most of his family in the Holocaust. He himself was imprisoned in a slave labour camp aged seven but immigrated with his brother to Palestine in 1945 and eventually became Chief Rabbi of Israel. He is married with eight children.

A born leader

DAVID HARRIS will discuss
"CHASSIDIC TALES OF THE HOLOCAUST" - a wonderful collection of stories which despite, or maybe because of, their subject inspire hope for the future
