

MONDAY APRIL 12th, 8 pm

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?
We Welcome back to Kenton
RAYMOND CANNON

Raymond is a retired lawyer and made aliya in 2002

His talk is entitled

ISRAEL - A BRITISH EXPAT'S PERSONAL PERSPECTIVE

Raymond, seen here with his wife, Jeanette, was a prominent communal leader in the UK and held a number of prestigious positions as Chairman of the Boards of Governors of Solomon Wolfson Jewish Day School, Michael Sobell Sinai Jewish Day School, and the JFS.

He also served as an Honorary Officer of The United Synagogue and Chairman of its Board of Education and was an active member of the Zionist Federation's media committee and Chief Rabbi's advisory committee.

He was a member of Kenton's Board of Management and an Honorary Officer during the ministries of Rabbis Cyril Harris Z'l; Eddie Jackson and Jeffrey Cohen.

Raymond is an amateur historian with an obsessive interest in historical subjects and personalities covering English, American and European political history, literary and political biography, and modern Jewish and Biblical historical themes - topics on which he speaks to a variety of groups and organisations. He also writes articles for a whole range of publications and societies in Israel and abroad.
