

KSDS presents Jews and Film Trivia

Tony Zendle

11th April 2021 20:00

Almost from the start, Jews were involved in films and film-making, whether as directors, screenwriters, or actors.

For a century or more films have been made embracing a massive range of topics of Jewish interest, from life in the Pale of Settlement to the Holocaust to the Bible. Sometimes funny, sometimes tragic, these films have thrown up a megaton of trivia which Tony Zendle, the maven of trivia has spent the last thirty years hoovering up.

Learn about nuns singing Yiddish, about the quintessential English gentleman (from Rumania), and about the man who saved Fagin as well as the 15 Commandments. Intriguing?

.....and with a bevy of clips, Tony (called by the Jewish Chronicle "a mine of information") will suggest his own Jewish Film Week and explain why Casablanca was one of the most Jewish films ever made.
