THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE
JEWISH PEOPLE IN SOME WAY

MONDAY, 1st FEBRUARY, 8pm

Two giants from the world of JEWISH EDUCATION

Ruth Topper will talk about Sarah Schenirer (1883-1935) who, in the years after the First World War, created the Beis Ya'acov schools for girls. This network of schools began life in Krakow, Poland, but is now worldwide.

David Harris will introduce us to Moses Angel (1819-1898) who was the headmaster of the Jews' Free School in London's East End for the greater part of the nineteenth century and who established the school, in those years, as not only one of the finest schools in England but also as, arguably, the world's leading Jewish school.
