ABOUT TEFMA

The Tertiary Education Facilities Management Association is an independent association of facilities managers operating in the tertiary education sector of Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong and Singapore. TEFMA covers the full range of functions in tertiary facility management including planning, construction, maintenance, operations and administration of educational facilities.

TEFMA has some 1300 members representing 67 tertiary education institutions and 3 affiliated associations in Australasia. TEFMA promotes engagement with industry through its 57 Business Partner members. TEFMA members provide vital infrastructure and service in support of the effective operation of tertiary and vocational education in the Australasian region. www.tefma.com

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

The TEFMA CLEVER CAMPUS AWARDS recognise outstanding achievements of our membership community, including institutions, teams and individuals.

The program aims to foster innovation and best practice in the higher education property and facilities management sector.

TEFMA has bestowed scholarships and awards annually since the 1990s and 2017 saw the launch of a greatly expanded and more prestigious program, providing an opportunity for the sector to publicly acknowledge the commitment and dedication of many of those who work in higher education property and facilities management.

TEFMA welcomes the engagement of its Business Partners to form an enduring connection to the Scholarships and Awards.

WHY SPONSOR A CLEVER CAMPUS AWARD?
