Student Zoom Norms

- Please sit in an indoor area (that is not your bed or bedroom) while you are in class. We want to respect and protect your privacy.
- Please wear school-appropriate clothing during all class sessions.
- Please keep your cameras on, at all times, during class.
- After logging in, please keep your microphones on mute!
- Please raise your hand to indicate that you want to speak. Unmute yourself before sharing. When you are done speaking, please mute yourself again.
- Please do not use emojis or distracting virtual backgrounds while you are in class.
- Please do not use the chat box to message other students. You may use the chat box to submit questions, at your teacher's discretion.
- If you haven't already, please type your name (first and last) in the display.
- If Zoom is disconnected during your class, please check PowerSchool or your e-mail for communication from your teacher(s).
- If you have learning accommodations, please rest assured that teachers will be notified by Dr. Helen Mahoney and/or Dr. Natosha Speight.

If you are experiencing technical issues, please contact pcsupport@barrie.org and copy your teacher and advisor on the email.
