Russian River, California

Located in a grove of Redwood trees near Guerneville in the heart of the Sonoma Wine Country, the campgrounds are just a 90-minute drive from San Francisco. Walk to the Russian River for swimming, canoeing, and relaxing on the beach. Peruse the hip and funky downtown scene with amazing local restaurants, bars, and shops. Explore vineyards and Redwood Forests, or take a short drive to the ocean.

Yosemite, California

Situated 40 minutes outside the western gates of Yosemite National Park, explore the park and its year-round adventures such as hiking, climbing, rafting, skiing, and snowshoeing. Head to the historic town of Mariposa, California, for restaurants, shopping, wine tasting, and breweries. Hiking trails are accessible in and near the campsite, which also features an onsite pool and pond. This location is a 3-hour drive from San Francisco.
