

Shoreline Community Women Military Care Kits

The Shoreline Community Women, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, helps support and brighten the day of troops around the globe through military care kits. SCW supports all branches of the military, Army, Navy, Airforce, Marines, and the USCG. If you know anyone deployed who would appreciate a care package, please contact us with their military address and deployment end date. They do not have to live in this area.
