Award Categories – Select One

☐ Chiropractor of the Year

The highest honour conferred by the ACAC, provided for outstanding long-term service to the ACAC and is reserved for recipients who have contributed significant personal time and effort in the promotion and advancement of the profession. Consideration will include:

- leadership within the profession at the national, provincial and/or local levels
- number of years of professional service in Alberta
- long-term involvement in inter-professional health care or non-health care organizations at the international, national, provincial or local levels

☐ Award of Excellence

Granted to ACAC members who have demonstrated, over time, exceptional dedication or service to the chiropractic profession and/or the community.

☐ Honourary Member

Awarded as recognition of service to the profession, to the affairs of the ACAC and to the development of chiropractic. Granted to a Doctor of Chiropractic who has been a member in good standing for a minimum 25 years, who is no longer in practice and who has made outstanding contributions of personal effort and time on behalf of the ACAC and its membership. Confers Honourary membership on a non-member (member of the public) who has contributed outstanding service to the ACAC or the profession at large.

For consideration, all nominees must also be a member in good standing with no outstanding fees or dues. Complete a separate form for each nomination. All three sections must be complete. Award nomination submission deadline is 4:00 p.m. June 11, 2020.
