

T21RS COVID-19 Initiative: scientific evidence supporting COVID-19 vaccination prioritization in Down syndrome

Date: 22nd March 2021

Time: 14:00 – 15:30 pm UK, 15:00 – 16:30 pm CET; 10:00 – 11:30 am EDT, 19:30 – 21:00 pm Kolkata, India

Programme:

Host - Professor André Strydom, President, T21RS and King's College London

1. T21RS COVID-19 survey of individuals with Down syndrome – Dr Anke Hüls, Emory University, USA; and Dr Sujoy Ghosh, University of Calcutta, India 15 minutes
2. COVID-19 in children with Down syndrome – Professor Monica Lakhanpaul, University College London, UK – 15 minutes
3. Practicalities and issues so far with vaccinations – Dr Anne-Sophie Rebillat, Institut Jérôme LeJeune, France – 15 minutes
4. Having the vaccine – Experience of supporting carers and people with Down syndrome – European Down syndrome association – 15 minutes
5. Introducing the T21RS Vaccine prioritisation tracker and other research – Professor Stephanie Sherman, Emeritus, Emory University, USA - 15 minutes
6. Discussion – Professor Alberto Costa, Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine, USA and Dr Nicole Baumer, Boston Children's Hospital Down Syndrome Program, USA