

THURSDAY | 3.24.2022 | 7:30 PM | WHARTON CENTER

MARCH FORTH

MSU WIND SYMPHONY

Honoring healthcare workers who have provided direct care throughout the pandemic.

Healthcare workers who have provided direct care throughout the pandemic are cordially invited to a special performance in their honor by the Michigan State University Wind Symphony

on Thursday, March 24th at 7:30 pm,
Kevin L. Sedatole, conductor

Wharton Center for Performing Arts

750 E. Shaw Lane, East Lansing, Michigan

This "March Forth" event is hosted by MSU AgeAlive, MSU College of Music and a generous donor in gratitude for your work on behalf of others.

Tickets are a gift in recognition of outstanding service. Guests are welcome.

Individuals who receive direct care support that would like to honor their healthcare worker are also invited.

Free parking is available in the Wharton Center garage.

Seating is general admission.

Simply complete the brief registration form and up to 2 tickets will be reserved for you to pick up on the night of the performance at the "AgeAlive Table" outside Cobb Great Hall.

Click HERE for tickets.

MSU Wharton Center Covid-19 protocols will apply and can be found HERE.

RSVP recommended by March 17th

For questions, email us at agealive@msu.edu

For additional information, please visit AgeAlive at www.agealive.org.

Livestream available at: <https://livestream.com/musicmsu/3242022windsymphony>