

Sunday, February 20, 2022

11:00 am

Sisterhood and Richter Library presents:

Inscription and Imagination

How a 2,000 year-old gravestone inspired a critically acclaimed new novel

To purchase a copy of Rebel Daughter for $12.00, please email Lisa Woliner at: lisawoliner@yahoo.com

Rebel Daughter takes the reader back in time to an event that changed the course of human history, the destruction of Jerusalem and the second Temple. A thrilling saga of family, faith and forbidden love while blending the fascinating story of the Jewish people with a timeless protagonist determined to take charge of her own life against all odds.

Join author Lori Banov Kaufmann and scholar Dr. Jonathan Price, of Tel Aviv University, as they discuss this book of historical fiction and share the details of their 10-year collaboration

The Distinguished Speakers

Lori Banov Kaufmann
Before becoming a full-time writer, Lori was a strategy consultant for high-tech companies. She has a degree from Princeton and a master's degree from Harvard University. She resides in Israel with her husband and four adult children

Dr Jonathan Price The Fred and Helen Lessing Professor of Ancient History, at Tel Aviv University, Dr Price has served as the chair of the history and the classics departments and is the author of many books and articles on Greek and Roman history and historiography, Jewish history of the Hellenistic and Roman periods and epigraphy

RSVP to this event by 2/18 to lisawoliner@yahoo.com to receive the event link