

APRIL 11-15
2022

NATIONAL STAND-DOWN
TO PREVENT STRUCK-BY INCIDENTS

Mon. April 11th at 1:00 PM EDT – Preventing Struck-by Incidents in Work Zones

The first of four virtual events for the week-long National Stand-Down to Prevent Struck-by Incidents, this 90-minute webinar will highlight the struck-by hazards faced by those working on roadways or other job sites with transport vehicle traffic.

Welcome: G. Scott Earnest, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health.

Moderator: Bradley Sant, American Road & Transportation Builders Association – Forecasting Impacts of the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act

Panelists:

- David Ferraro, Connecticut Department of Transportation – Surviving a Work Zone Struck-by Incident ...and Doing Something About it.
- Laura Huizinga, Lindsay Transportation – Choices and Options for Positive Protection in Roadway Work Zones
- Marchel Johnson, Virginia Department of Transportation – Keeping Work Zone Incidents Low during the COVID-19 Pandemic
- Martha Kapitanov, Federal Highway Administration – The National Work Zone Safety Strategic Plan and Other Efforts to Improve Work Zone Safety

Click here to register and submit questions in advance

Lunes, 11 de abril a las 3:00 PM EDT - Prevención de Incidentes por Atropellos: Zonas de Trabajo, Equipos Pesados e Impacto de Objetos

Bienvenida: Carlos Chang, ICG, Departamento de Ingeniería Civil y Ambiental de la Universidad Internacional de Florida (FIU)

Moderador: Robinson Vasquez, “Asociación Americana de Constructores Viales” (ARTBA) – Pronóstico del impacto de la “Ley de Inversión en Infraestructura” (IIJA) en los Empleos y la Seguridad Laboral.

Panelistas:

- Martha Kapitanov, Administración Federal de Carreteras de los EEUU (FHWA) – Plan Estratégico y Esfuerzos de la “Agencia de Información para la Seguridad en la Construcción Vial” (WZS) para mejorar la Seguridad en las Obras Viales.
- Benjamín Colucci, Centro de Transferencia de Tecnología y Transportación de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rico LTAP - T2) – La Protección a los trabajadores contra incidentes por Atropellos e Impactos en Puerto Rico.

Haga clic aquí para inscribirse y enviar una pregunta con anticipación

Weds. April 13th at 2:00 PM EDT- What's the risk? Best Practices to reduce the likelihood of struck-by injuries from heavy equipment and crane activities

Panelists on this National Struck-by Prevention Stand-Down webinar will concentrate on struck-by incidents involving heavy equipment and crane activities, including a presentation about fatalities related to quick coupler detachments on excavator buckets, a review of best practices for tower crane assembly, use, and disassembly, and a discussion about lift planning.

Moderator: Alanna Klein, Product Director – Construction & Energy, Risk Control Services, Liberty Mutual Insurance

Panelists:

- Robert Harrison, MD, MPH, Principal Investigator, California FACE Program
- Hank Cierpich, Safety Engineer, California FACE Program
- Michael T. Walsh, President, Dearborn Engineers & Constructors, Inc.
- Derek Sather, Director of Safety and Risk Management, Sims Crane & Equipment
- Tom Gordon, Training Director, I.U.O.E. Local 14-14B

Click here to register and submit questions in advance

Thurs. April 14th at 2:00 PM EDT - Preventing Struck-by Incidents from Dropped Tools & Other Objects

As the final event in our National Struck-by Prevention Stand-Down series, this 90-minute webinar will focus on the dangers associated with dropped tools and other objects as well as strategies to prevent or arrest falling objects and avoid these types of struck-by incidents altogether.

Moderator: Ron Sokol, Advocacy Governmental Affairs and Special Projects, Safety Council of Texas City

Panelists:

- Nate Bohmbach, Product Director at Ergodyne and Chair of the ANSI/ISEA 121 Product Group
- Carl Heinlein, ARM, CSP, CRIS, Sr. Safety Consultant, American Contractors Insurance Group
- Jason Timmerman, CSP, Vice President, Environment & Workplace Safety, Pittsburgh International Airport
- Patrick Marsilio, CSP, CHST, SMS, Safety Manager, Pittsburgh International Airport
- Drew Ashcraft, CSP, Vice President, Health, Safety, Environmental, & Quality, The Brock Group
- Kenneth Piposar, CEO, Founder, Abseilon USA / Airitas Custom Tethering Solutions

Click here to register and submit questions in advance

