

MADISON SEYMOUR

NATIONAL BROKER ACCOUNT MANAGER

JOHN LYNG USA / RECONSTRUCTION EXPERTS

ABOUT ME

Madison Seymour is a seasoned professional in the insurance broking sector, currently serving as the National Broker Account Manager at Johns Lyng Group in Australia. With over eight years of experience in the industry, she has amassed a wealth of knowledge and a unique perspective on the intermediated insurance market. Throughout her career, Madison has demonstrated her expertise across a range of critical areas, including marketing, business development, and account management. Her deep understanding of the insurance industry, combined with her exceptional communication and relationship-building skills, has enabled her to develop and maintain strong partnerships with key stakeholders. In her current role, Madison is responsible for managing relationships with insurance brokers and intermediaries across the country. She works closely with brokers to ensure timely service delivery and positive outcomes for customers, while implementing strategies to improve the broker experience. Her commitment to delivering exceptional client service has earned her a reputation as a trusted contact and valuable asset to the Johns Lyng Group and its clients.
