ExecPro SVP team leader based out of CRC Chicago. 20 years experience all at CRC Chicago focusing on Professional and Management Liability. Serves on CRC's National Practice ExecPro team for complex Real Estate and non-depository Financial Institution Liability.

Prior to joining CRC in April of 2003, Rommel spent time at a Fund of Funds hedge fund in the Chicago financial district and later at a Securities Broker Dealer.

Rommel has a niche focus in complex FI, real estate structures backed by investment capital, fintech and technology E&O/cyber for insureds in the crypto, NFT and blockchain space.

There are 12 team members including 3 sub-producers with a combined 125 years of experience. For cyber placements, our team handles transactional accounts through CRC's in-house REDY platform and for larger, complex middle market accounts, we focus on a consultative pro-active approach.
