Manager at the Fleming Museum, where he serves as the CAS representative. He serves on the Personal and Professional Development Committee (PPD) who this year has worked on a Parking FAQ with T&PS. PPD is also working on a TeDTalk type of event to showcase knowledge and skills on campus. When Guaran was appointed to Staff Council, he stated: "Being a representative will help me to grasp a firm understanding of the University's administration and policies in addition to networking and collaborating with the stakeholders of the wider UVM community. In my spare time, I do mountain biking, hiking, and I'm building an Instagram community page called '20s Life Hacks.""
