

Increase your profitability with good procurement in an affordable way.

Ensuring all business manage spend and risks appropriately

Promitheia Procurement provides value to businesses, with an online platform to ensure your organisation is managing spend and risks effectively.

It is a comprehensive online procurement website, providing your business with the opportunity to purchase procurement templates and work with online procurement professionals to design your businesses procurement function to meet your unique requirements.

With research indicating that many companies are exposed to risks and overspending liability, Promitheia Procurement provides greater access, flexibility and agility for all sized businesses in the area of procurement including governance, policy setting, sourcing, category strategy, contracts and procurement procedure, tendering, prequalification to contract management and claims.

It is designed to approach procurement in a more effective way and this comprehensive procurement resource provides;

- Specialised procurement templates
- Procurement advisory services

The benefits of using this solution are:

- Improved spend performance and lower costs
- Standardized workflow
- Improved data accuracy
- Improved internal integration
- Improved operational performance
- Sharpened your strategic deliberate thinking
- Simplified processes
- Managed contractual risk
- Improved performance management
- Strengthened governance and internal control

The advanced online template approach allows you to immediately download, customise and store the templates securely.

This, combined with an online advisory solution, is affordable compared with other options and offers greater manageability of your contracts and procurement needs working with procurement professionals.

The Promitheia Procurement team have extensive experience in oil and gas, mining and infrastructure, and will support your business with a range of tasks including, customising the templates to be fit for purpose, undertake sourcing activities, negotiate contracts and more.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

Book a 15 min free consultation on the website.

For the first 20 companies that follow on LinkedIn a $50 gift card will be issued. T&C's Apply.