

Australasian Research Management Society

How to join a Special Interest Group

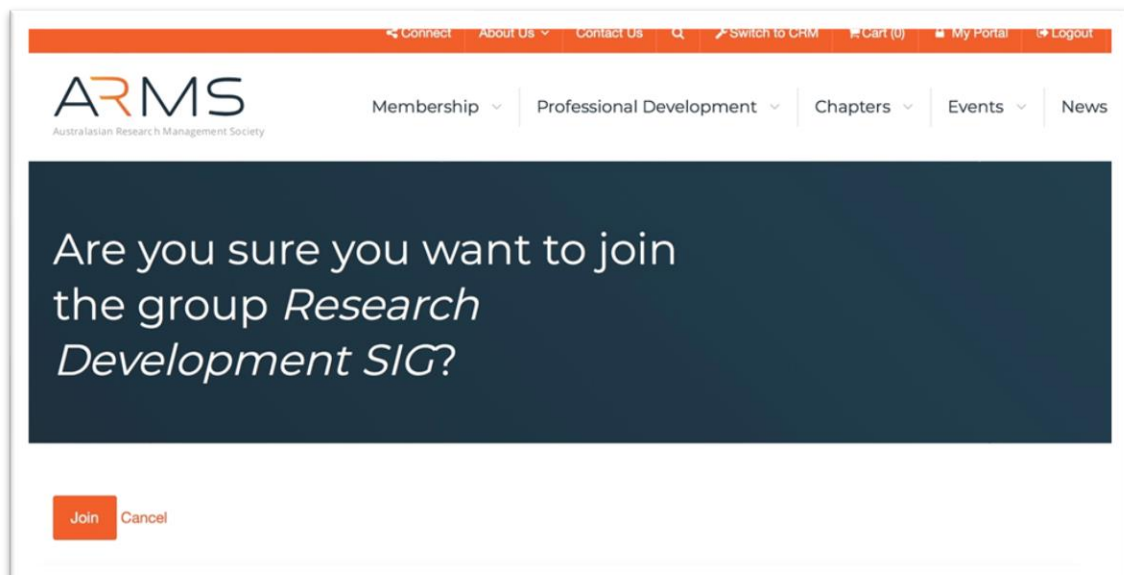

Prepared by ARMS Executive Office
Australasian Research Management
Society
Last Updated 2/06/2020

Special Interest Group Instructions

1. Navigate to the ARMS website and login to your members portal.
2. Click on About Us > Special Interest Groups.
3. Click the Special Interest Group you wish to join.
4. Click 'Join this Group'.

5. Confirm that you would like to join the Special Interest Group by clicking 'Join'.

- From here you can now access the Special Interest Group Forum by clicking 'View Forum', here you will be able to post documents and articles to share with fellow members of the Special Interest Group.

The Research Development SIG was established following the identification of this new and emerging role for professional staff within the Australasian research management sector.

The RD SIG within ARMS seeks to provide support for research managers and administrators undertaking research development activities within and across Universities through networking and sharing of best practice.

The RD SIG is currently under development. For more information, please email arms.adminofficer@flinders.edu.au

View Forum

Invite a friend

Leave this group

Upcoming Events Latest News Related Resources

No Upcoming Events were found